Jennie:

I've kept your album long,
And think I should apologize,—
Well — so please forgive all wrong
That may from my neglect arise.

My wish all others comprehends,
Which your whole album shall contain,—
And that is, that from all your friends
May no good wish be made in vain.

Simple maids and noble youth
Are welcome to the man of truth;
Most welcome they who need him most
They feed the spring which they exhaust.

Would you but know your future fate
Rare changes in this world you'd make
A happy home I wish for you it ensures
Now remember and never forget you all your life
Good men adore and always love a cheerful wife
